Love &
Light

Our Love & Light editorial was inspired by the great love stories of all time, from Romeo and Juliet to Jack and Rose. To set the scene we took inspiration from fashion magazine covers that would make any couple feel like the hottest celebrity duo. The concept for the editorial was produced by Bikki Hans from Bix Co. Blog, along with Monika Sharma from Events by M and Maria Buda from Buda Photo. Harkamal Parmar from ArtistyByH served as the provider of hair and makeup.

I love you, not only for who you are, but for what I am when I am with you, I love you not only for what made of your self but for what you are making of me.
